GRR Expectations

ESMS TIGERS...

Go Safely
Show Respect
Be Responsible

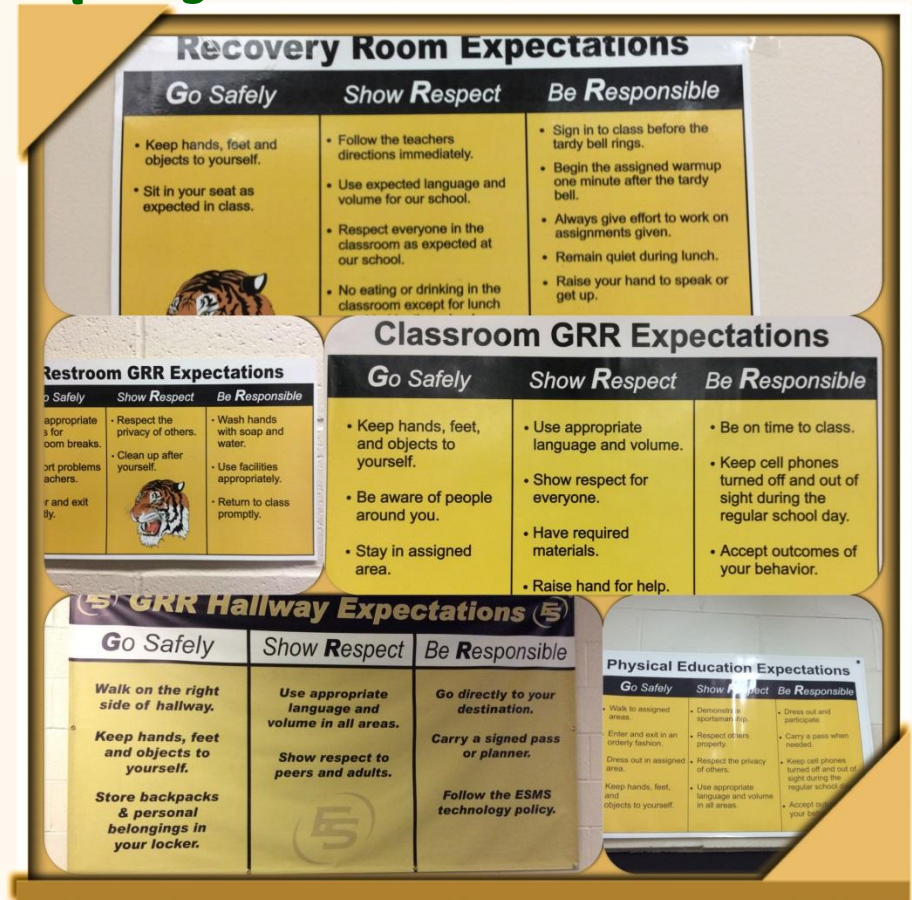

...GRR

GRR Expectations on Display

- GRR signs are posted all around the school to remind students of the expectations for each different setting.
- Hallways, Classrooms, Restrooms, Cafeteria, Gymnasium, Recovery Room

PBS Leadership: Who we are

7th and 8th graders

- 13 eighth graders
- 15 seventh graders

Students apply for PBS Leadership at the end of their 6th grade year.

PBS Leadership: What we do

- Plan incentives and celebrations.
- Create and star in GRR videos.
- Give tours to students who are new to our school.

“I wanted to join PBS because I wanted to help my school have better incentives and I like to help people.”

(Sydney, 6th grade)

Leadership Team Meetings

- ESMS does academic interventions four days a week.
- Social skills, bully prevention, and digital citizenship lessons are taught on Wednesdays.
- When the rest of the school is discussing social skills, bullying, and digital citizenship we are hard at work.

Leadership Team Meetings

- Film videos
- Create advertising for upcoming incentives
- Brainstorm ideas for incentives
- Plan incentive and celebration details.

“I wanted to be in PBS to be part of a group.

PBS is a great environment to be around

because everyone is included.”

(Rudy, 6th grade)

Incentives and Celebrations

Incentives and Celebrations

Tiger Paw Incentives

- Weekly Drawings
- Surprise Parties
- VIP Lunch
- GRReat Student of the Week
- 200 Club
- Biggest Incentive Ever

Weekly Tiger Paw Drawing

Tiger Paw Drawings

Surprise Parties

Each grade level had 1-2 surprise parties each month.

Admittance to the surprise party was 30 Tiger Paws.

GRREAT Student of the Week

GRREAT Student is chosen from Tiger Paws turned in throughout the week.

GRREAT Student receives a goody bag and the chance to say the Pledge of Allegiance on the announcements.

200 Club

Students who earned and turned in 200 Tiger Paws got to spend an afternoon at the park across the street from ESMS and enjoy a pizza party.

Biggest Incentive Ever!

Each year we do a
Biggest Incentive
EVER Assembly.

This year, students
voted with tiger paws
to pie some of their favorite teachers.

VIP Lunch

- Fridays in the fall and spring students could pay 10 Tiger Paws to eat lunch at the picnic tables outside the commons.

“I joined PBS because I wanted to help the school and make it a better place to come every day.”

(Natalie, 6th grade)

GRR Videos

- We create videos that promote good behavior. These videos are uploaded to our school's YouTube for all of the teachers to show their classes during Tiger Hour.

“I wanted to be part of PBS because I wanted to work with my peers to set a positive example in our school.”

(Gunner, 6th grade)

Transfer Students

- When new students transfer to ESMS, we work as Student Ambassadors to help them learn about the school.
- This includes giving them a tour of the building, walking them through their schedule, discussing lunch procedures, and much more.

Student Leadership

The PBS Leadership Team is a group of students dedicated to improving our system of positive behavioral supports at Excelsior Springs Middle School. The team is made up of 7th and 8th graders who consistently follow the school-wide expectations to be safe, responsible, and respectful. The student leaders meet during ELT and after school to brainstorm and plan incentives and celebrations.
