Radar Diagram – PBIS Self Reflection

All staff in our building have a collective commitment to PBIS best practices.

Teachers and staff feel that they can ask questions and receive assistance with PBIS and behavior.

PBIS is one of three or less big initiatives in our building for this school year.

Staff have agreed upon beliefs about behavior and shared vision for the school.

Teachers and staff have received ample training on best Tier I practices for PBIS.

PBIS implementation is continually monitored by building leadership.

Grade level teams or departments have a collective commitment to PBIS best practices. They rely on one another to implement.

Staff have appropriate monetary resources to make PBIS happen in our building.